COMBAT MARKSMANSHIP COACH (CMC) & COMBAT MARKSMANSHIP TRAINER (CMT) COURSE, MCAS MIRAMAR

1. PURPOSE. To train students in Combat Marksmanship Coaching/Training techniques, procedures, and theory, for service within the major supporting commands and supporting establishments.

2. SCOPE. This course provides the knowledge, skills, and attitudes required for a Marine to succeed as a Combat Marksmanship Coach (CMC) MOS 0933 or Combat Marksmanship Trainer (CMT) MOS 0931.

3. PREREQUISITES.

- a. Minimum of one-year TIS.
- b. Minimum of one year remaining on contract upon graduation.
- c. Current Sharpshooter or higher qualification with the service rifle (CMC ONLY).
- d. Any MOS.
- e. Be in full duty status.
- f. Meets current height and weight standards.
- g. 20/20 corrected vision.
- h. Minimum 6 months' time as Combat Marksmanship Coach (For CMT).
- i. Current Expert qualification with service rifle and current marksman or higher with service pistol (CMT ONLY).

4. REPORTING IN.

- a. All students must check-in to the station armory in building 7134 by 0700 on the course convene date with original orders, BTR, note taking gear, complete command screening checklist and this welcome aboard package. Uniform throughout course and graduation is seasonal MARPAT's.
- b. Students who require lodging will report to the MCAS Miramar Consolidated Bachelor Quarters (CBQ, BLDG 4312) with their original orders on the course report date.

5. LODGING & MESSING.

a. Lodging: Government lodging is available at government rates on a first come first serve basis. For current rate please visit the following website (<https://www.dodlodging.com/html/MB-miramar.htm>). Students are encouraged to contact the MCAS Miramar CBQ to inquire about a reservation during the course dates. The CBQ help desk contact phone number is (858) 307-4233. Students in a Temporary Additional Duty (TAD) status get lodging priority over students who are in a non-TAD status. All students original TAD orders MUST specify lodging is required at MCAS Miramar, and NOT San Diego. In the event the original orders do not specify lodging at MCAS Miramar, students will be assigned available lodging as if they were in a non-TAD status. This may require them to vacate their rooms for TAD personnel who have correctly annotated orders. Rooms will be assigned by CBQ staff. Do not change rooms or move furniture around/into or out of rooms. All billeting maintenance problems will be reported to the Course Chief/CBQ as soon as possible. Laundry facilities are available free-of-charge in the CBQ.

(1) Due to overcrowding of Barracks on MCAS Miramar, students are encouraged to contact the CBQ in advance to obtain a letter of Non-Availability prior to departing their parent command. SNM will need to be prepared to provide CBQ with a copy of orders to expedite process. CBQ Non-Availability Phone is (858)-307- 4235.

(2) In the event lodging is not available at the MCAS Miramar CBQ, students can contact the Marine Corps Recruit Depot (MCRD) San Diego Billeting and Housing Office at (619) 524-4401. For current rates

Students are expected to clean-up and put equipment back after use. No equipment will be removed from the gym! A basketball court is available at the Sports Complex.

8. LEAVE/SPECIAL LIBERTY. Leave and special liberty will not be granted. Weekend Liberty Limits are within 300 miles of San Diego; out of bounds will not be authorized. If an emergency or personal problem develops, you will inform an instructor immediately. The FMTC Chief will assist students in contacting their parent command in case of an emergency.

9. TRANSPORTATION/POV'S/RENTAL VEHICLES. Students are required to secure their own transportation to and from the airport, as well as from their lodging location to and from the classroom/training areas. If staying aboard MCAS Miramar, students must travel 6 miles to the classroom and approximately 8 miles to the live fire ranges. If staying at MCRD San Diego, or other areas of San Diego, travel distances can exceed 12 miles one way. It is required that students secure rental vehicles if they aren't traveling via their POV. Graduation will commence NLT 1200 on graduation day. Plan all flights accordingly and allow one hour for travel to the Airport.

10. CHAIN OF COMMAND. The Chain of Command provides a means to account for all students and assist with any issue which may arise.

- a. Students will use the following Chain of Command:
 - (1) Primary Instructor
 - (2) Chief Instructor
 - (3) FMTC Chief
 - (4) Carlos Hathcock Range Gunner
- b. Request Mast. Every Marine has the right to request mast. Students may request mast to the following:
 - (1) Commanding Officer, Headquarters & Headquarters Squadron
 - (2) Command Officer, MCAS Miramar
- c. H&HS Sergeant Major. Enlisted Marines desiring to speak with the Squadron Sergeant Major will do so by going through a modified chain of command:
 - (1) Chief Instructor
 - (2) FMTC Chief
 - (3) Carlos Hathcock Range SNCOIC
 - (4) Squadron Sergeant Major

11. CONTACT INFORMATION. Telephone calls of a professional or official nature will be taken by the Instructor Staff and relayed to the student. Emergency calls will be handled as required. Students will not make or receive personal calls via government phones. Pertinent points of contact are:

- a. Carlos Hathcock Range: (858) 307-4657
- b. Carlos Hathcock Range Email: miramarhathcockrng@usmc.mil
- c. MCAS Miramar CDO: (858) 307-1141
- d. CBQ: (858) 307-4233

12. TRAINING AND ACADEMICS.

a. The training schedule for each class gives the time, location, class or activity, and instructor for all training events. Students are responsible to be at the appointed place, at the appointed time, with the required equipment. A copy of the schedule will be posted in the classroom and all students will be provided with a copy during the course in-brief. Updates and changes will be passed by the FMTC Chief as needed. Failure to follow the training schedule may result in being dropped from the course; based on the situation punitive action may be taken. Absence from training must be approved by the FMTC Chief prior to being absent. Students can miss no more than four hours of instruction during the course.

b. Marines who need to go to sick call will inform their Primary Instructor. Any illness or injury to a student, regardless of severity, will be reported to the Instructor Staff immediately.

c. Your primary goal while attending the course is to show mastery of the knowledge and skills taught throughout the program of instruction. Counseling is conducted if student academic performance is not up to standard. Students who need additional instruction or help will inform the Primary Instructor; ASK AND YOU WILL RECEIVE. One retest is allowed for each testable event. Should a student fail to maintain an 80% average upon being retested, they will be dropped from the course. In addition, failure of three separate graded events will result in being dropped upon failure of the third event.

13. UNIFORMS/EQUIPMENT.

a. Serviceable appropriate seasonal utility uniforms will always be worn. During winter months beanies are only allowed to be worn while down range. Heavy fleece may be worn if under the utility uniform or Gortex.

b. Students must bring all required gear, as well as a copy of their ORIGINAL ORDERS, COMPLETED COMMAND SCREENING CHECKLIST AND A CURRENT COPY OF THEIR BTR. Failure to report with required gear and documents are grounds for dismissal from the course.
